Old Business

-Finalization of Friday Night Live Event timetable.

Lafoy stated that contracts and W-9s were sent out and one was received back by Jesse Queen. Reminders will be sent out by Lafoy for the other artists that have yet to return contracts and W-9s. Cap stated that The Bear radio station, 92.5, will advertise this free event. Cap mentioned that she needs assistance in the community area and help breaking items down. 4:30 is the time for the artists to check-in.

-Further discussion of workshops proposed by Dan Guyton

Still seeking a place to have the workshop hosted by Carolyn Moore. Space is to be determined. Elizabeth Cooper offered to hold the Directors workshop that will last approximately 90 minutes. Ideal ages for 15 and up to get more out of the workshop. Space required for this workshop by Cooper will need writing tables or clipboards.

Dana Lamb has three possible events.

1.Fayette's Funniest Stand Up Comedy Festival/Competition on June 29th.

2.Musical, Theatre or Dance to honor Veterans on Veteran day on November 9th

3.Fayette's Got Talent

Guyton will follow-up with all three ladies to find out more of how the committee can serve the events with Q and A. Mitchell mentioned that she would like to introduce yoga benefits for Veterans for the Veteran event.

Heather Cap and Donna Thompson's position are now open. Applications for new committee members need to be turned in by June 28th. Janice Holmgaard requested to be added to the list of exiting members. Guyton stated that Dana Lamb exhibited high interest in joining and Carolyn Moore expressed interest. Lafoy stated the link is on the county website. Godbee stated that today is the day to reelect officers. Terria Mitchell mentioned that due to her work schedule she will be unable to attend and take minutes for Monday meetings. LaFoy and Guyton agreed to take minutes in her absence.

New Business

-Discussion of internship for Mya Mackiewicz (resume provided)

Rising Sophomore student. Reviewed student's resume read by LaFoy.

Lafoy intends to reach out to a few Fayette County High Schools to see about having a High School student as a student representative on the committee. However, June 8th - Aug 1st is Mackiewicz's availability.

Cap suggested to attach a project to a student from beginning to end. The Bird House project was also suggested by Cap, to have a student uncover "where the project went wrong".

LaFoy briefly discussed John Rorie has an interest in the committee giving advice or suggestions to his arts projects for the Golf Cart Tunnels. Lafoy will follow-up with Rorie for more details. Guyton suggested to start at the local high schools. No Motion.
